La Bioca – Ariss – 2014

Langhe Arneis

BRONZE - CORRECT

Italy, Piedmont

White wine with a very youthful appearance here, not a lot of colour, a slight green tinge. Also the nose is appearing very young, quite discreet; first with some notes of citrus and green apple. The palate is on the lighter side, light-bodied, dry with a medium towards high acidity. On the finish it appears really fresh and crisp, with notes of lemon and lime zest. There's no indication of oak. A rather light style, so definitely a wine to enjoy for its freshness at a rather young stage.
