SILVER - GOOD

Greece, Macedonia

Youthful and pale colour here with a moderately intense straw colour. Very fine nose. Very much on the, I would say, mineral style, some stony notes. Barely ripe stone fruit like white peach, with pear, ripe lemon. No oak is involved. It is finely layered on the nose. So there is quite a lots of stuff going on there. Really good purity. Very salivating on the palate. Medium-bodied with good flavour intensity. Bright freshness, balanced extract as well. With zesty notes and fine layers of fresh green apple to slightly riper apricot and stone fruit. Good length indeed. There is a mineral notion, almost with a salty sensation. Really good length. Very appetizing, salivating. A wine I would happily drink.
